

Fig. 5b. A map of all earthquakes (1981-1988, magnitude 1.8 or greater) located in this study with vertical error less than 4 km. The symbol type depends on the depths of the hypocenters and the size of the symbol increases with magnitude. (from Bryant & Jones, 1992) Cross-section G-G' modified to show coastal faults